Agreement with Respect to Terms of Use

This Website is owned and operated by EvoShare, Inc, a Delaware Corporation, located in California (“EvoShare”). In these Terms of Use (“TOS” / “Agreement” / “Terms”) the user may be referred to as “you” and EvoShare may be referred to as “us”, “we”, or “our”. These Terms of Use constitute a legally binding agreement between EvoShare and you. You are responsible for regularly reviewing these Terms of Use. You can review the most current version of the Terms of Use at any time on the Evoshare website. You acknowledge that you have read these Terms of Use, and accept, understand and will be bound by such terms and conditions. You further acknowledge that these Terms of Use, together with the Privacy Policy supersede any proposal or prior agreement oral or written, and any other communications between us relating to your access or use of the Site, and/or Services (as defined below).

By submitting an application to participate in the Services (which you can find here) you represent and warrant that you have the right to enter into and perform this Agreement with EvoShare. Participation in the Services is subject to EvoShare’s prior approval. EvoShare reserves the right to refuse participation to any person, party, organization or company, at any time, in its sole discretion. To participate, you must be a United States based organization or company, or an individual over 18, with the right to work in the United States. As a condition of registration, you agree that you will only provide accurate information, and update or maintain your account to keep the information for the account accurate. You acknowledge that if any information provided by you is untrue, inaccurate, not current or incomplete, we reserve the right to terminate your access to and use of the Service. Our use and disclosure of any such information that you provide is governed by our Privacy Policy, which may be accessed here.

Username and Password

As part of the account set-up and registration process, you may be asked to select a username and password. We may refuse to grant you a username for any reason in our sole discretion, including in the event that we determine that such user name impersonates someone else, is illegal, vulgar, or otherwise offensive, or is protected by trademark or other proprietary rights law, or otherwise may cause confusion. You will be responsible for the confidentiality and use of your username and password and agree not to transfer or resell your use of or access to the Service to any third party. YOU ARE ENTIRELY RESPONSIBLE FOR MAINTAINING THE CONFIDENTIALITY OF YOUR USERNAME AND PASSWORD AND FOR ANY AND ALL ACTIVITIES (INCLUDING PURCHASES, AS APPLICABLE) THAT ARE CONDUCTED THROUGH YOUR ACCOUNT.

Employer Accounts

If an Employer wishes to implement EvoShare without their Retirement Service Provider being an EvoShare Partner, EvoShare will charge the Employer the fee agreed upon subscription. If an Employer's Retirement Service Provider is an EvoShare Partner, the Employer is subject to the fee structure, if applicable, that has been established between EvoShare and the EvoShare Partner. Employer Accounts are subject to approval by EvoShare. EvoShare has sole discretion in choosing whether or not to approve an Employer registration.

Companies who desire to have or already have an employer sponsored retirement program for Employees ("Employer") may apply for registration to use EvoShare's services ("Services"). By submitting an application to participate in the Services, you represent and warrant that you: 1) have the right to enter into and perform this agreement with EvoShare including, but not limited to, the consent of the Employer to use its name and/or logo, and 2) that the information in your application is true, complete and current. By participating in the Services, you grant EvoShare a worldwide right to: 1) display your listing on our Website; 2) promote your organization or company as part of the Services online, in print and any other media; and 3) display your trademark, logo, slogans and other source or business identifiers in promotion of your company or organization.

If an Employer terminates its customer relationship with an EvoShare Partner and their new Retirement Service Provider is not an EvoShare Partner, the Employer will be required to pay EvoShare's onboarding and monthly fees.

Employers may promote their participation in the Services by displaying the EvoShare trademark, logo, slogan and other source or business identifiers. EvoShare may terminate this Agreement or remove their listing from the Website and Services at any time for any reason. Upon receipt of written notice of termination from EvoShare, the Employer must promptly remove any source or business identifiers of EvoShare and disable the links from their website to the Services.

Available EvoShare Programs and How They Work

Paycheck Deductions based on EvoShare Dollar

As often as agreed between Employer and Employee (typically with each payroll period), the Employer shall log into their employer dashboard with EvoShare and download a worksheet with information on Employees that are saving toward their employer-sponsored retirement plan and the amount of EvoShare Dollars they have accrued. EvoShare Dollars represent the Employee's cash-back, family members' cash-back, and supercharges. Employees that are saving toward a non-employer related account (i.e. IRA, student loan, or college savings plan) will not be included in this worksheet since no payroll deduction is needed to redeem their EvoShare Dollars to those financial accounts. Payroll deductions are only needed for Employees saving toward an employer-sponsored retirement plan.

The Employer shall then fill out their portion of worksheet by specifying whether or not those Employees are allowed to contribute their EvoShare Dollars toward their employer-sponsored retirement plan. For Employees that have over 10 (ten) EvoShare Dollars and are allowed to contribute their EvoShare Dollars toward their employer-sponsored retirement plan, EvoShare will send the Employees their EvoShare Dollars via ACH transfer. The employer will then deduct the EvoShare Dollar amount from the Employee's upcoming paycheck as an additional retirement contribution. EvoShare does not send any funds to the Employer. EvoShare only provides the Employer with data on which dollar amounts to deduct from Employees' next paycheck.

It is the responsibility of the Employer to ensure Employees are allowed to contribute their EvoShare Dollars and make paycheck deductions in an amount that is equal to the Employees' EvoShare Dollars. For Employees that are not allowed to contribute their EvoShare Dollars, EvoShare asks that the Employer provide the reason so that EvoShare can engage the Employee according to its internal procedures. For example, if an employee of a participating Employer is terminated, EvoShare will email them and provide a 90-day grace period to continue accruing EvoShare Dollars. However, the terminated Employee can only apply the EvoShare Dollars toward a non-employer related account. If an Employee has maxed out their retirement contributions, the Employee can store and continue accumulating the cash-back until the following calendar year or use their EvoShare Dollars toward a non-employer related account.

Employer is solely responsible for errors made by their payroll department when processing the additional paycheck deductions. EvoShare will conduct their due diligence in providing accurate EvoShare Dollar amounts and maintaining records of this information.

Should an error happen while processing the additional paycheck deductions, the Employer and EvoShare will review all pertinent records. If EvoShare is found to have provided inaccurate EvoShare Dollar amount(s), EvoShare shall provide the correct amount(s) and will reimburse the Employee in the amount of any underreported amount if Employee did not already receive the benefit of the same or otherwise assist Employer with making deduction corrections. If the Employer is found to have entered inaccurate EvoShare Dollar amounts while processing the additional paycheck deductions, the Employer will be responsible for reconciling paycheck earning discrepancies caused by the paycheck deduction error.

EvoSaver Accounts

Employees (“EvoSavers”) of Employers that have chosen to register for an EvoShare Employer Account may register for an EvoSaver Account and earn cash-back toward an employer-sponsored retirement plan, IRA, student loan, or college savings plan.

Employees of the Employer are considered “EvoSavers.” When an “EvoSaver” makes a purchase at a participating online or offline merchant, that transaction is recorded by EvoShare. A percentage of the transaction is given to the EvoSaver as “cash-back” and stored as points in their EvoSaver account: 1 point equals $1 in cash-back.

An EvoSaver Account allows the EvoSaver to authorize his or her payment card network (e.g., Visa, MasterCard, American Express) (“Payment Card Network”) to monitor and share his or her transaction data made with his or her registered payment card at participating merchants with EvoShare and its third party service providers (including Employer(s)) (“Third Party Service Providers”). EvoShare shall obtain, provide, and/or use the EvoShare Saver’s transaction data to calculate his or her points, redeem rewards, enable his or her card-linked offer(s), provide or inform about target offers that may be of interest to him or her, and to facilitate the EvoShare program in accordance with any and all EvoShare program Terms of Use and the EvoShare Privacy Policy. EvoShare may share the EvoShare Saver’s transaction data with participating restaurants or other participating vendors to determine if he or she is eligible to receive the offered reward from such parties. The EvoShare Saver may opt-out of the EvoShare program at any time by signing into the EvoShare dashboard and deleting the card on the Linked card(s) tab.

SUBJECT TO YOUR COMPLIANCE WITH THESE TERMS AND ALL APPLICABLE LAWS, EvoShare grants you permission to access and use the EvoShare Service solely for your personal use, at the level for which you have registered, as set forth in these Terms and consistent with the intended features of the EvoShare Service.

In order to use the EvoShare Service, you must have an EvoShare account in good standing and you must enroll a valid, eligible credit or debit card by submitting your card information that EvoShare requests. You agree that the information you provide to EvoShare on registration and at all other times, will be true, accurate, current, and complete, and that you will keep this information accurate and up-to-date at all times and you represent and warrant that you are authorized to use the payment card that you submitted.

By registering for or interacting with the EvoShare Service you represent that you have read and accepted the terms of the Privacy Policy.

Receiving cash-back (Statement credits)

Earnings from local restaurants may take anywhere from a few minutes to 7 business days to show up, depending on the type of card used and restaurant visited. Earnings from online businesses normally take 1-30 business days to process. In some case, the earning process may be delayed.

In order for EvoShare to redeem an EvoSaver's cash-back toward an employer-sponsored retirement plan, IRA, student loan account, or college savings plan, the EvoSaver must earn a minimum of $10 in cash-back.

For an EvoSaver using an Employee sponsored Retirement Savings Account, such as a 401(k), periodically, EvoShare sends the EvoSaver their cash-back earnings via direct deposit. The EvoSaver is notified when the cash-back earnings are sent. The EvoSaver's Employer will then deduct an equal amount from the EvoSaver's upcoming paycheck as an additional contribution toward their employer-sponsored retirement plan. This additional deduction will only happen if the EvoSaver has earned at least $10 in cash-back and the employer confirms that the EvoSaver is allowed to contribute toward their employer-sponsored retirement plan, the Employer will process such earnings in such manner as it has agreed with Employee and as otherwise customary for its employment practices, and it may or may or may not subject them to a matching formula. EvoShare will not be making any contributions directly to a 401(k) account on behalf of the EvoSaver. EVOSHARE HAS NOT INVOLVEMENT IN OR RESPONSIBILITY FOR DETERMINING HOW AND WHEN AN EMPLOYER MAKES A GIVEN RETIREMENT PLAN OR OTHER PLAN CONTRIBUTION OR HOW SUCH CONTRIBUTION IS CALCULATED.

For the EvoSaver using the Service to contribute to an IRA, HSA, FSA, Student Loan, or College Savings Plan, EvoShare will send the cash-back earnings amount directly the IRA, Student Loan, or College Savings Plan provider. To participate in this, the EvoSaver must provide accurate and complete IRA, HSA, FSA, Student Loan, or College Savings Plan account information to EvoShare, and authorizes EvoShare to make these contributions on the EvoSaver's behalf.

In no event shall the applicable Payment Card Network be considered as maintaining any type of financial obligation or deposit or other asset account, or holding funds or other value for you for distribution to you. Any pending Cash-back represents offer fulfillment amounts in process owed by the Participating Retailer or EvoShare, as applicable, and not your funds or balances maintained or held by the Payment Card Network.

PAYMENTS BY EVOSHARE TO ANY THIRD-PARTY ACCOUNT SUCH AS A STUDENT LOAN ACCOUNT SHALL NOT CONSTITUTE ANY FORM OF GUARANTEE OR

ASSURANCE BY EVOSHARE THAT REGULAR PAYMENT REQUIREMENTS FOR SUCH LOAN ACCOUNTS SHALL OTHERWISE BE SATISFIED; IT IS THE RESPONSIBILITY OF ANY PARTICIPANT TO ENSURE THAT REQUIRED PERIODIC PAYMENTS ARE MADE IN A TIMELY FASHION IRRESPECTIVE OF PARTICIPATION IN ANY EVOSHARE PROGRAM.

The EvoShare Cash on Demand Program

In addition to the traditional EvoShare employment-based programs, EvoShare offers all EvoSavers a cash on demand (“COD”) option on their accounts. The purpose of the COD account option is to allow EvoSavers an additional way to redeem their EvoShare points beyond application to employer-sponsored plans and third-party service provider services or products. The COD account option will allow an EvoSaver to directly obtain cash if and when they need it, subject to EvoShare’s normal processing time(s) for ACH transfers. This means that an EvoSaver can obtain some much needed funds which they have saved-up at any time for any reason via an on demand basis; essentially this allows EvoSavers to save for a rainy day.

To manage their EvoShare points/credits between their COD account and their account which is applicable to any Employer plan or participating service provider credits, any EvoSaver must access their account management page while using the Services and in so doing will be able to view their EvoSaver points balance. EvoSavers may then designate that some or all of their points be allocated for use in their COD option on their account, so long as those points are not already subject to a pending or otherwise committed transaction. It is the responsibility of the EvoSaver to actively monitor and manage the respective balances in the respective tabs for their accounts.

An EvoSaver shall only have COD funds available to the maximum amount that the EvoSaver causes those funds to be designated for COD use through their account tab. On the purchase/accrual of any EvoSaver points, all points are automatically designated to the standard EvoSaver account for the given EvoSaver which will typically be their account utilized for Employer sponsored programs or third-party service provider redemption. However, from time to time, EvoShare may allow an EvoSaver to directly purchase EvoShare points and on such purchase, have them directly credited to their COD account.

All COD account maintenance and distributions of payments by EvoShare are strictly subject to EvoShare’s standard processing times and the agreement(s) of EvoShare’s own financial-account providers. If at any time EvoShare may not hold funds in any account for COD usage for any reason, EvoShare shall have the express right to credit any and all EvoShare point equivalent amounts to the regular service redemption and/or Employer sponsored accounts of the concerned EvoSaver and if required, may discontinue provision of the COD account option.

While COD accounts are intended to allow EvoSaver's to obtain cash on the go, it is also expressly understood and agreed by the EvoSaver that the availability of cash from their COD account is never guaranteed to be instantaneous or timely for particular purpose. Transfer of funds from any COD account to the requesting EvoSaver will always be subject to standard ACH transfer processing times and restrictions upon business and financial institution hours as well as the availability of any EvoShare personnel whose involvement may be required to complete any given request. This means that while the COD program is provided as a convenient additional feature of the EvoSaver account system, it should never be considered a substitute for having immediate cash on hand in the event of any form of emergency.

ALL EVOSAVERS EXPRESS AGREE, IN ADDITION TO ALL OTHER LIMITATIONS OF LIABILITY IN THIS AGREEMENT, THAT THEY SHALL NEVER RELY UPON THE EVOSHARE COD PROGRAM OR ANY EVOSHARE CODE ACCOUNT AS A MEANS FOR OBTAINING IMMEDIATE CASH IN THE EVENT OF ANY EMERGENCY OR MATTER OF NECESSITY OR IMPORTANCE OF ANY KIND AND THAT EACH OF THEM AGREES TO RELEASE, WAIVE AND FOREVER HOLD FULLY HARMLESS EVOSHARE AND ALL OF ITS AFFILIATES, AGENTS, EMPLOYEES OR AFFILIATES FROM ANY AND ALL FORMS OF LIABILITY OR DAMAGES FROM ANY ASSOCIATED EMERGENCY, CAUSE OR NEED IN RELATION TO WHICH THE EVOSAVER MAY SEEK CASH FROM A COD ACCOUNT, INCLUDING ANY PERSONAL INJURY, WRONGFUL DEATH, PHYSICAL OR EMOTIONAL HARM, LOST OPPORTUNITY, SPECIAL OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGE, OR THIRD PARTY CLAIM OR ACT OF ANY KIND.

In all cases of COD requests from an EvoSaver, EvoShare shall make reasonable commercial efforts to process and issue payment on the request from that EvoSaver's COD account as soon as commercially practicable. Where for any reason EvoShare is unable to process a requested COD payment by ACH transfer, it shall issue a check for the requested amount to the EvoSaver's provided address on the EvoSaver's account. It is the responsibility of the EvoSaver to maintain current account address information and to inform EvoShare if any check is not timely received. COD payment checks issued to a requesting EvoSaver which are not cashed within 45 (forty-five) days of issuance shall be cancelled by EvoShare and any points credit deducted from the concerned EvoSaver's account(s) for the issued check amount shall thereafter be restored.
